Foundation for Success

Dear student,

Ready for the test? Take a deep breath and relax. Don't forget to read the questions very carefully. Some questions that look tough, will be quite easy after you have read them properly. Do not spend too much time on any question. Go to the next question and later come back to the ones you felt were tough. Be cool, give your best and have fun. Good luck!

II. Reading comprehension

Read the following story carefully and using the options provided, answer the questions that follow it.

There was once a big, white hen that had twelve little chickens. They were very small, and the old hen took good care of them. She found food for them in the daytime and at night kept them under her wings. One day, this old hen took her chickens down to a small river. She thought some fresh air and the water would do them good. When they got to the river, they walked on the bank a little while. It was very beautiful on the other side of the river and the old hen thought she would take the chicken over there. There was a large stone in the river. She thought it would be easy for them to jump to that stone and from there to the other side. So she jumped onto the stone and told the chicken to come after her. For the first time, she found that they did not obey her.
