

PRESS RELEASE

30th March, 2018

In continuation of the Board's earlier communication dated 28.03.2018, the Board has referred the entire matter to the Delhi Police for detailed investigation. The criminal investigations are on.

Meanwhile, the Board has decided the following:

1. The Board would be conducting the Class XII Economics paper (Code 030) for all candidates except the students in CBSE schools located abroad. The candidates will appear from the same allotted centres using the same Admit Card. The date of the said examination will be 25th April, 2018.
2. As regards, Class X Mathematics (Code 041), the initial inquiries have revealed that the leak was restricted to Delhi NCR and Haryana. Details are still being worked out. In view of this, it has been decided that re-examination will not be considered for any other state except Delhi NCR and Haryana. If after a detailed inquiry it is found necessary to conduct a re-examination, it will be held in July, 2018.
3. All other remaining examinations would take place as scheduled.
4. All are also requested to visit CBSE website for any update for any authentic information / instruction. Board has also created a mail id examhelp.cbse@gmail.com
